had a great batting matinee yesterday afternoon at American League Park, and the visitors easily came off first best by the score of 11 to 6. The Senators surprised themselves and all the spectators by hitting the ball very hard, but took their usual course of fielding badly, which more than offset their hard batting.

Manager Clarke Griffith went on the rubber for the Highlanders and was touched up for thirteen hits with a total of twenty bases, about the hardest drubbing this clever twirler has received this season. Back of Griffith his companions stood up manfully, a dropped fly by Dougherty being the only misplay charged against the team. Orth, who did the twirling for the Senators, was not hit so very much harder than Griffith, but his support was miserable and he allowed seven of the fifteen hits to be bunched in the fourth inning. Just how effective the two pitchers were, can be gleaned from the fact that Washington earned all of its six runs, while but one was earned by the Highlanders. In the fourth inning, when all the damage was done, Stahl muffed a high fly back of sec-ond base which would have put an entire different complexion on the game had the ball been caught, and the error appeared to dishearten Orth to such an extent that he simply lobbed the ball over the plate. simply loobed the ball over the plate.

The feature of the game was the splendid batting of Dougherty, who recently joined the New Yorks from the Bostons. He went six times to the bat and laced out a triple, a double and three singles, two of the latter being somewhat lucky. Ganzel was next best, with three singles.

Everybedy, on the Secretary. Everybody on the Senatorial team, with the exception of Orth, got one or more hits.

McCormick's triple and single were of the timely order and scored runs, while his long fly to Fultz in the sixth inning also brought a tally over the plate. In the field, Barry fielded nicely, although he had one bad error. For the Highlanders Williams was the star, the ten chances that he accepted being of the clean and accurate order. At the bat Jimmy was tied up, as Orth had him on his list and kept the bingles from going off his bat. In the first inning, Dougherty started off put out trying to steal, after Fultz had flied out to Stahl. Williams ended the inning by going out, McCormick to Clarke. Then the Senators got busy, Cassidy duplicating Dougherty's feat by leading off with a pretty single over the shortstop's head. Donovan was "Johnny on the spot" with a beautiful sacrifice, Cassidy easily reaching second. Moran then hit to Osteen and the latter thought he could catch Cas-sidy at third, but Joe slid under Thoney and was safe. Selbach then hit an ugly bounder scoring on the out. McCormick came forward with a timely single over second and Moran raced home. Stahl followed with a terrific triple to the right field fence, scoring McCormick, and was put out himself ball being well handled by Anderson to Williams to McGuire. Stahl made a splendid slide to the plate, but McGuire got the ball on him in time to score an out. The big fellow was heartily cheered for his gallant effort to score.

For three innings the New Yorks could do nothing with Orth, but in the fourth he blew up and the bombardment he received was something fierce. Dougherty led off with a single, Fultz followed with a double, the former scoring on Williams' long fly to Stahl. Anderson then hit a high fly back of second which Stahl made a good try for, but after getting under the ball muffed it and Fultz raced home, while the batter reached second. Then followed in quick succession a single by Ganzel, a double by McGuire, a triple by Thoney, a double by Griffith, and on Dougherty's second time at the bat in this inning he secured a double, Fultz obligingly ending the agony by going out, McCormick to Clarke, with seven runs chalked up to New York's credit. This bat-ting bee took all the life out of the Senators, and everybody seemed stupefied by Orth's work after his splendid start. In the fifth, New York scored another run on Anderson's and McGuire's singles. In the sixth Selbach tripled to center and scored on McCormick's long fly to Fultz. In the eighth, both sides hung up two runs, a base on balls, a triple and an error being responsible for New York's pair; while a single, a triple and a long fly to the out-field did the trick for Washington. In the ninth inning the Highlanders hung up their last run on Ganzel's single, a force to second and Cassidy's wild throw to first. For Washington, Cassidy, Donovan and Moran went out in order.

Base Ball Rulers Protect Clubs in Mat-

From a decision reached by the members of the national base ball commission at a

At yesterday's meeting the commission took under consideration the case of player

Morarty, who was loaned by the Chicago National League Club to Fall River with the understanding that he was to be returned at a specified time, and the decision reached was that Morarty still belonged to Chicago and could be claimed by the latter club. After the Morarty decision had been reached Chairman Herman said:

"It will not be necessary to make any changes in the wording of the agreement against the loaning of players by the major leagues to the smaller leagues. The quesplayer was to be returned to the major league when wanted.

"The decision in the Morarty case does not mean that we will return to 'farming', as that term was known in days gone by.

Some modified form of the old practice had to be inaugurated, for it was too much to suppose that a major league club was going out after youngsters, paying big money for them, only to lose all claim to them should they prove not quite ready for the big league. So it was decided to es-tablish a precedent in the Morarty case by which all the clubs in both major leagues could go by in the disposal of their sur-

The Foundry regained second place again by winning the game by the score of 11 by winning the game by the score of 11 to 8.

From the start the St. There's batting and base running was subtile to that of the winning team, but during the entire game the error column flourished to such an extent that a good many of the runs were earned by these streaks of yellow fielding.

Harveycutter was right there with goods yesterday, both at the bat and in the field, capturing five assists, four putouts, and at the bat made fout irons and two hits, both of which were cleah and timely. the St. Stephen's and Library teams were the contestants in a game of five innings, the former winning by the one-sided score of 16 to 1. The Library boys were woefully weak with the bat, getting only one hit off Buscher, while the St. Stephen's lads hammered the opposing three pitchers all over the lot. In fielding the Library team was also weak, making seven misplays. The feature of the game was Moriarity's batting, two triples and two singles being his record. Score:

WOMEN PLAY TENNIS.

National Tourney Started in Philadel-

Unfortunately the drawings for yesterday's play in the women's national lawn tennis tournament, in progress at Wissahickon Heights, near Philadelphia, resulted in rather uneven matches being played. Miss May Sutton of the Pacific coast, who defeated Miss Howell on Tuesday afternoon, yesterday disposed of Miss Stotesbury of the Huntingdon Valley Country Club, allowing her only one game out of thirteen.

An interesting match was played in the first round between Miss Stotesbury and Miss Fetterman, which finally resulted victory for the representative of the Huntingdon Valley Club in straight sets, by 11½ games to 11. By far the best match of the day, however, was that between Miss Helen Homans of the Staten Island Club and Miss C. B. Neely of Chicago. This is the first appearance of Miss Homans in Philadel-W. L. The results showed the pair to be very evenly matched. The New Yorker finally won, after a heart-breaking fight, y scores of 7 to 5 and 11 to 9, securing her victory by greater accuracy at critical

A start was made in the women's doubles and mixed doubles late in the afternoon, but little progress was made in either of them. The most important event was probably the match between Miss Homans and Miss Coilin and Mrs. Hibbs and her sister, Mrs. F. B. Gilbert. The latter pair have always played a strong game in the championship doubles, and it was expected they would pull out a victory yesterday, but after losing the first set Miss Homans and Miss Coffin braced up wonderfully in their play and captured the last two sets and the Ball, Glenn Blake, Flora Brown, Elizabeth Bryan, Lewin H. Campbell, Kortwright Darrett, cf 0 0 0 0 0 Hith pythoche balls—Norman, Bishop. Struck out a different story would be told after many promoted, section Ei, conditionally—Boys: Dougherty's fielding yesterday demonstrated why Collins allowed him to leave Boston. He muffed an easy fly and allowed a grounder to get by him that a first-class fielder should-have eaten up. But there are no files on Patrick when it to swatting the ball.
